

Annual General Meeting

What is an AGM (Annual General Meeting)?

As a Group, the Brisbane North Chamber of Commerce is reporting to YOU, the member on:

- Our current Financial Status
- Results of Audits that have been conducted
- Current Position Holders on the Executive
- General Business

What's talked about at the AGM?

- The past year and where we have come from
- The future direction of YOUR Chamber over the next 12 months
- Major decisions and issues effecting BNCC

What YOU can get out of the AGM

- Elect the right people to grow the Chamber
- Know about the solid foundation of YOUR Chamber
- Feel confident in the future plans and direction
- Have YOUR input into the Chambers future

How can I have my say?

- Raise your issue Prior to the meeting in writing
- Gather support for your issue
- Motivate others to respond and have their say

Membership gives you rights and privileges that complement the strong entrepreneurial spirit that you already have.

The self confidence that drives you to succeed in your business is the same self confidence that we encourage in your participation in shaping, forming and growing the Brisbane North Chamber of Commerce.

YOUR opinion and participation is valuable to us.

Have your say at the AGM!
