

BIOGRAPHY

Andrew Konefal, Yellow Brick Road - Brendale

Andrew Konefal blends extensive experience in residential and commercial lending with a passion for helping his clients to succeed, allowing him to provide outstanding mortgage advice.

With a focus on small business and commercial lending he has access to many different lenders, whether it is the big 4 banks, second tier banks or access to private funders.

Andrew's considerable finance knowledge comes from more than 16 years working with several different banks, including ten years in commercial and business banking, where he was regularly awarded for his expertise. He is able to assist all types of borrowers, particularly investors (including those looking to purchase property using their Self Managed Super Fund) and the self-employed. He is also able to assist business clients with their commercial and business finance needs.
