Tamara Simon, Business Scene Investigation

Tamara Simon is the Simple Systems Specialist known as The BSi.

Where most people see things as they are, Tamara sees things differently – she sees things in systems which reveal how things can be.

As a Speaker, Author and Coach driven by curiosity, change and simplicity, she helps small business owners solve problems and find untapped opportunities so they can implement simple systems which save time and make money.

With over 20 years' experience in change management and business improvement, Tamara specialises in helping her clients get CLEAR on their Business, People and Systems so the business becomes simple, profitable and one everyone actually loves.

Tamara has published her first 2 business books including the first business book specifically for RTOs: The Five Little Business Pigs and The Five Little RTO Pigs.

Tamara's leadership and management expertise was recognised as a Finalist in the Queensland Telstra Business Women's Awards and the Australian Institute of Management (AIM)'s Excellence Awards. She is a Founding Contributing Author for Smallville – the website for small business owners who think big and her articles have also been published by Chamber of Commerce and Industry Queensland (CCIQ) and Women's Network Australia.
